Missionary Childhood Association Badge Requirements

First through Third grades: Complete one of the activities below.

Fourth through Sixth grades: Complete two of the activities below.

Seventh through Eighth grades: Complete three of the activities below.

Activities

1. Research child labor and find out about a job a child might do in a third world country. Write an essay of maximum 300 words incorporating the below information:
 - The type of job
 - The ages of children who might work in that job
 - Any dangers associated with the work
 - The payment they will receive
 - Your thoughts on child labor
2. Who are missionaries? On a sheet of paper answer the question and list examples of mission work. Write a letter to a missionary (contact DRVC Mission office for names and addresses of missionaries), thanking them and expressing their inclusion in your prayers. (First through third-graders may make a card or color a picture.)
3. Make a collage representing the Catholic Church globally. How are we the same; how do we differ? Use pictures from print media and/or the internet (with adult assistance).
4. Read "The Great Commission" (Matthew 28:19-20). Write it out and tell about how you think Jesus' words are lived out by missionaries today.
5. Who is Archbishop Fulton Sheen? What does he have to do with Mission? Write an essay of maximum 300 words on Archbishop Sheen and include at least one quote.
6. Do you have to travel around the world to be a missionary? List and discuss some ways you can be a missionary right here in our Diocese.
7. List the Corporal Works of Mercy and how a missionary might incorporate them into their work.
